May it please your Majesty,

With reference to my application dated 2nd November 1909 I beg to state that I have not yet been favoured with a reply although about three weeks elapsed I cannot express the difficulties in which I am placed

I further beg to state that I have been struggling to get a help from your Majesty's Kind and due control for the last above mentioned time but regret to say that I am not crowned with success

Under the circumstances mentioned above, I beseech your Majesty to grant the help craved in my application

For this act of Kindness I shall pray to Almighty for your Majesty's long life & prosperity in this world

I remain, with profoundest veneration, Sire, your Majesty's most faithful subject & dutiful servant,
Channaya S Kundgolmath
